WELCOME MESSAGE

Once again, on behalf of the Planning Committee, it is my honour to welcome you all to the 2nd Annual Nigerian Schools Sports and Family Fun Day(NSSFF)2013. Established in London in April 2012, the NSSFF simply aims to provide:-

- A Platform for Networking of UK-based Alumni of Nigerian Schools and Associations
- The Promotion of Social Interaction through Sporting Activities
- An Annual Sports & Fun Day for all the Family
- An Opportunity for Youths to appreciate and embrace the rich Nigerian Educational Legacy and Culture
- Enhancement of Socio-Cultural links with Local Communities

For those that were able to join us here last year, I am sure you had a very exciting and memorable time. And for those joining us for the first time, I can guarantee you that today you will have the time of your lives.

Last year was a hugely successful event with over 800 people in attendance of all races, ages and backgrounds. It was described as the 'largest gathering of Nigerians in the UK (Not Church or Music based)'. We have not rested on our laurels. Based on feedback received, we now have more School Alumni Associations taking part and we have managed to package a more varied, bigger and better event.

Our thanks go out to our special guests, advertisers, sponsors, media partners and all who have contributed in helping to make today a success.

Today is all about catching up with old friends and family, making new friends, competing in fun activities and having a nice time. I wish you all the very best. Enjoy and have a fabulous day!

NSSFF School Profiles

BAPTIST ACADEMY LAGOS was founded in 1855 and is arguably the first school established in Nigeria; its origin is traceable to African American Reverend Joseph M. Harden. The present site was first-rate legacy of the University of Lagos, inclusive of a standard football field and a sports field complete with a six-lane athletics track. The school, recently the country's representative at a science Olympiad in South Africa and Cowbell's mathematics Championship winner for secondary schools in Lagos state, is continually being blessed with a growing number of brilliant students and dedicated teaching staff of sound intellect, all making their marks everywhere. BAOSA is the UK Alumni Association of the school.

BIRCH FREEMAN HIGH SCHOOL is a boys' secondary school located in Surulere, Lagos. It was named after the first Methodist Missionary to land in Nigeria in 1824.

The school was established on the 6th of February 1960 and administered by Methodist Church (Western Nigeria District). Birch Freeman High School has produced men of different professional backgrounds, ranging from Accountants, Engineers, Barristers, Business men, Government officials and many more. Notable among them is the incumbent governor of Lagos State, Governor Raji Fashola, who represents the amiable and charismatic products of the school. The motto of the school is "trained for duty and for thee." All old boys are trained to truly believe in that. Birch Freeman Old Boys Association (BIFOBA) is the Alumni Association of the school and it currently has branches in the UK, U.S.A and Nigeria.

CHRIST'S SCHOOL ADO EKITI, was established by an English clergyman Archdeacon Dallimore as Ekiti Middle School in 1933. The name Christ's School was adopted in 1936.

The School has contributed greatly to educational progress and development in Nigeria, and has produced arguably the highest numbers of professors in the country, in virtually all fields of learning. The school has also produced well known alumni and public figures, like the late Professor Sam Aluko, a renowned Economist, the late Professor Kayode Osuntokun, one of the foremost neurologists of his generation, and the current governor of Ekiti State, Dr Kayode Fayemi. Christ's School Alumni Association UK is the Old Students body in the UK.

COMPREHENSIVE HIGH SCHOOL, AIYETORO (CHSA) is a co-educational secondary school situated on a sprawling 171-hectare site, 37 kilometres west of Abeokuta in Ogun State. The school was founded in February 1963 and is a result of the joint efforts of the Old Western region government, United States Agency for International Development(USAID), Harvard University and the Ford Foundation. The school is in no doubt the precursor of the 6-3-3-4 system of education and largely responsible for the popularity of comprehensive education in the country. Fondly referred to as "Compro" the school has produced many distinguished old students who are making positive contributions in the society both in Nigeria and abroad. Founded in 2002, Compronians UK is the UK Alumni Association of CHSA.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT GIRLS COLLEGE (FGGC) BIDA was one of the Unity Schools introduced across Nigeria in the early 1970s with the aim of promoting multiculturalism and national unity. It was established in 1974 with the first set of school leavers in 1979.

The Schools Motto is: "PRO UNITATE". On leaving school, the majority of old students went on for further education and the school has since produced many professionals in different fields of life working nationally and internationally.

The idea of "UK Old Girls" association was fostered by 3 people in 2010 when they met at Nando's restaurant in O2 Arena, London. The aim of the association is to broaden opportunities for alumni to "give back" to our school, administer numerous programs which will enhance the educational experience of current students by providing academic and financial assistance.

NSSFF School Profiles

The founding Principal was the legendary Mr P.H Davies who went on to be Principal of FGC Warri. Federal Government College Sokoto has grown to become a model institution that can be credited with graduating many of Nigeria's current leaders in both the public and private sector. The school has produced amongst several others, notable and distinguished Nigerians including Donald Duke, the dynamic former governor of Cross River State. FGCSOSA UK is the Alumni Association in the United Kingdom.

GOVERNMENT COLLEGE IBADAN, (founded February 28, 1929), is a "boys only" secondary school located on the hills of Apata Ganga in Ibadan, Nigeria. Government College was modeled after the British secondary boarding schools of the era, and the first set of students numbered twenty nine.

In the period before the dissolution of the Western Region, Nigeria, the school earned the enviable fame of being one of the best secondary schools in Nigeria. IGBOBI COLLEGE YABA, LAGOS was established in 1932 "to give a well-balanced secondary education to boys in an environment adequate for the purpose". The objective of the CMS and Methodist planners was to show that improved education could best be established under ecumenical Christian influence provided "an environment adequate for the purpose" could be located. This meant emphasizing residence for pupils and teachers, and land spacious enough to cater for this, as well as providing fields for sport, craft, farm, etc. A 32-acre plot, part of the kola plantations of the family of Madam Tinubu met these requirements, hence the name, "Igbobi" College. We played as many games as we could, competing against the Chairman's eleven, Shell Cricket Club and the Lagos Asians to name a few, we also engaged in a number of social activities, cricket coaching clinics and media events all designed to promote the game in Nigeria.
